CONTENTS.

JANUARY.

PAGE.

I.—The Glory of the Redeemed as Related to the Work of Christ. By Heman Lincoln, D.D. 1

II.—The Christian Solution of the Labor Problem. By the Rev. A. E. Waffle 24

III.—The Moravian Baptists. By Prof. Albert H. Newman, LL.D. 41

IV.—Co-education: A "Symposium." By James B. Angell, LL.D.; J. R. Kendrick, D.D.; Galusha Anderson, D.D.; Prof. J. H. Gilmore; Prof. N. L. Andrews; Prin. Theo. H. Rand, LL.D.; Prin. T. J. Morgan, LL.D.; Prin. A. C. Hill.

V.—Editorial Department.—Three or One? p. 114; The Workingman's Grievances, p. 119 114

VI.—Homiletic Department.—The Minister's "Outside Studies," by A. J. Rowland, D.D., p. 123; The Church Member who Embezzles, by the Rev. George Thomas Dowling, p. 125; The Ministry of Service, by H. A. Cordo, D.D., p. 130 123

VII.—Review of Current Literature.—By the Editors, with the co-operation of Drs. O. S. Stearns, Howard Osgood, Wm. Arnold Stevens, Albert H. Newman, H. S. Burrage, and the Rev. W. W. Everts, Jr.; Briggs's Messianic Prophesy, p. 133; Lyon's Assyrian Manual, p. 134; Thayer's Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament, p. 135; Ditzler's Baptism, p. 139; Douais's Practica Inquisitionis Heritice Pravitatis, p. 145; Witte's Das Leben Tholuck's, p. 147; Lamb's The Golden Bible, p. 149 133

24711

APRIL.

PAGE.

I.—BIBLE WINE: THE MEANING OF YAYIN AND OINOS IN SCRIPTURE. By President Alvah Hovey, D.D. 151

II.—THE HISTORICAL RESULTS OF THE GOSPEL. By the Rev. William A. Stanton, Ph.D 181

III.—ALEXANDER CARSON. By the Rev. William T. C. Hanna 190

IV.—THE ANCIENT BAPTISTERIES. By the late Sewall S. Cutting, D.D. 203

V.—MIRACLES POSTERIOR TO THE APOSTOLIC ERA. By the Rev. W. H. H. Marsh, D.D 225

VI.—EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT.—A Practical Basis of Union, p. 243; Henry Ward Beecher, p. 247; A Remedy for Newspaper Scandal, p. 249 243

VII.—HOMILETIC DEPARTMENT.—The Minister's Average, by the Rev. Albert P. Brigham, p. 252; Nicodemus and Christ, by the Rev. O. P. Gifford, p. 255; The Conflict of the Ages, by the Rev. A. C. Dixon, p. 257; The Thinking God, by the Rev. G. C. Baldwin, Jr., p. 258; His Name Shall be Called Wonderful, by the Rev. M. H. Pogson, p. 260; Our Young People—A Suggestion, by the Rev. W. H. Butrick, p. 261; Pulpit Themes, by the Rev. C. E. Bascom, p. 264 252

VIII.—REVIEW OF CURRENT LITERATURE.—By the Editors, with the co-operation of Professors John A. Broadus, Benjamin O. True, J. H. Gilmore, and the Rev. Frank S. Dobbins:—Warfield's Introduction to the Textual Criticism of the New Testament, p. 266; Broadus's Commentary on Matthew, p. 267; Sheldon's History of Christian Doctrine, p. 269; Cuningham's Growth of the Church in its Organization and Institutions, p. 272; Krafft's Die Geschichte der beiden Martyrer Adolf Clarenbach und Peter Fliesteden, p. 275; Smith's Life of Carey, p. 277; Pierson's Crisis of Missions, p. 278; Gordon's Our India Mission, p. 279; Benjamin's Persia and the Persians, p. 279; Henry's Ling Nam, Low's Medical Missions, and other recent missionary literature, p. 280; Mrs. Orr's Handbook to Robert Browning's Works, p. 281; Pomegranates from an English Garden, p. 281; Rolfe's Select Poems of Robert Browning, p. 281; Hersey's Christmas Eve, etc., p. 281; Corson's Introduction to the Study of Robert Browning's Poetry, p. 281; Symons's Introduction to the Study of Robert Browning, p. 281; Burt's Browning's Women, p. 281 266

JULY.

PAGE.

I.—WHAT WAS THE "FRUIT OF THE VINE" WHICH JESUS GAVE HIS DISCIPLES AT THE INSTITUTION OF THE SUPPER? By President Alvah Hovey, D.D. 285

II.—FREEDOM OF DISCUSSION. By Professor E. H. Johnson, D.D. ... 304

III.—THE LORD'S SUPPER. By George Dana Boardman, D.D. 320

IV.—THE MINISTER LEARNING FROM HIS PEOPLE. By the Rev. Charles H. Watson 337

V.—JESUS CHRIST THE FINAL TEST OF BIBLICAL CRITICISM. By Professor Howard Osgood, D.D. 357

VI.—EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT.—Is An Organic Church Union Possible? p. 370; Echoes from the Anniversaries, p. 373; Ministers' Vacations, p. 378; Echoes from the Commencements, p. 380 .. 370

VII.—HOMILETIC DEPARTMENT.—My Week-Day Work, by Robert G. Seymour, D.D., p. 385; Sermon Plans, by the Rev. J. C. Allen, the Rev. Emory J. Haynes, and the Rev. Chas. A. Stakely, p. 387; The Preparation of Sermons, by the Rev. L. M. S. Haynes, D.D., p. 392 385

VIII.—REVIEW OF CURRENT LITERATURE.—By the Editors, with the co-operation of President E. Dodge, D.D., Professor Albert H. Newman, and the Rev. Frank S. Dobbins:—Vincent's Word Studies in the New Testament, p. 395; Stubbs's Lectures on Mediæval and Modern History, p. 396; Cunningham's Hulsean Lectures, for 1885, p. 398; Coxe's The Ante-Nicene Fathers, vols. iv-viii, p. 399; Schaff's Select Library of the Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers, vols. i-iii, p. 399; Strzygowski's Iconography of the Baptism of Christ, p. 401; Dawson's James Hannington, p. 403; The Church Missionary Atlas, p. 404; Supplement to the Schaff-Herzog Encyclopedia, p. 405; Stall's Methods of Church Work, p. 406; Sheppard's Saratoga Chips and Carlsbad Wafers, p. 406; McCray's Environment, p. 406; Life of George C. Haddock, p. 406; Ludlow's Captain of the Janizaries, p. 407; Halliwell-Phillipps's Outlines of the life of Shakespeare, p. 408; Dowden's Life of Percy Bysshe Shelly, p. 409; Schurz's American Statesmen, p. 411 395

OCTOBER.

I.—SWEDENBORG AND HIS WRITINGS. By the Rev. Wm. S. Apsey .. 413

II.—THE PAULINE ANTITHESIS BETWEEN LAW AND GRACE. By the Rev. R. E. Neighbor 440

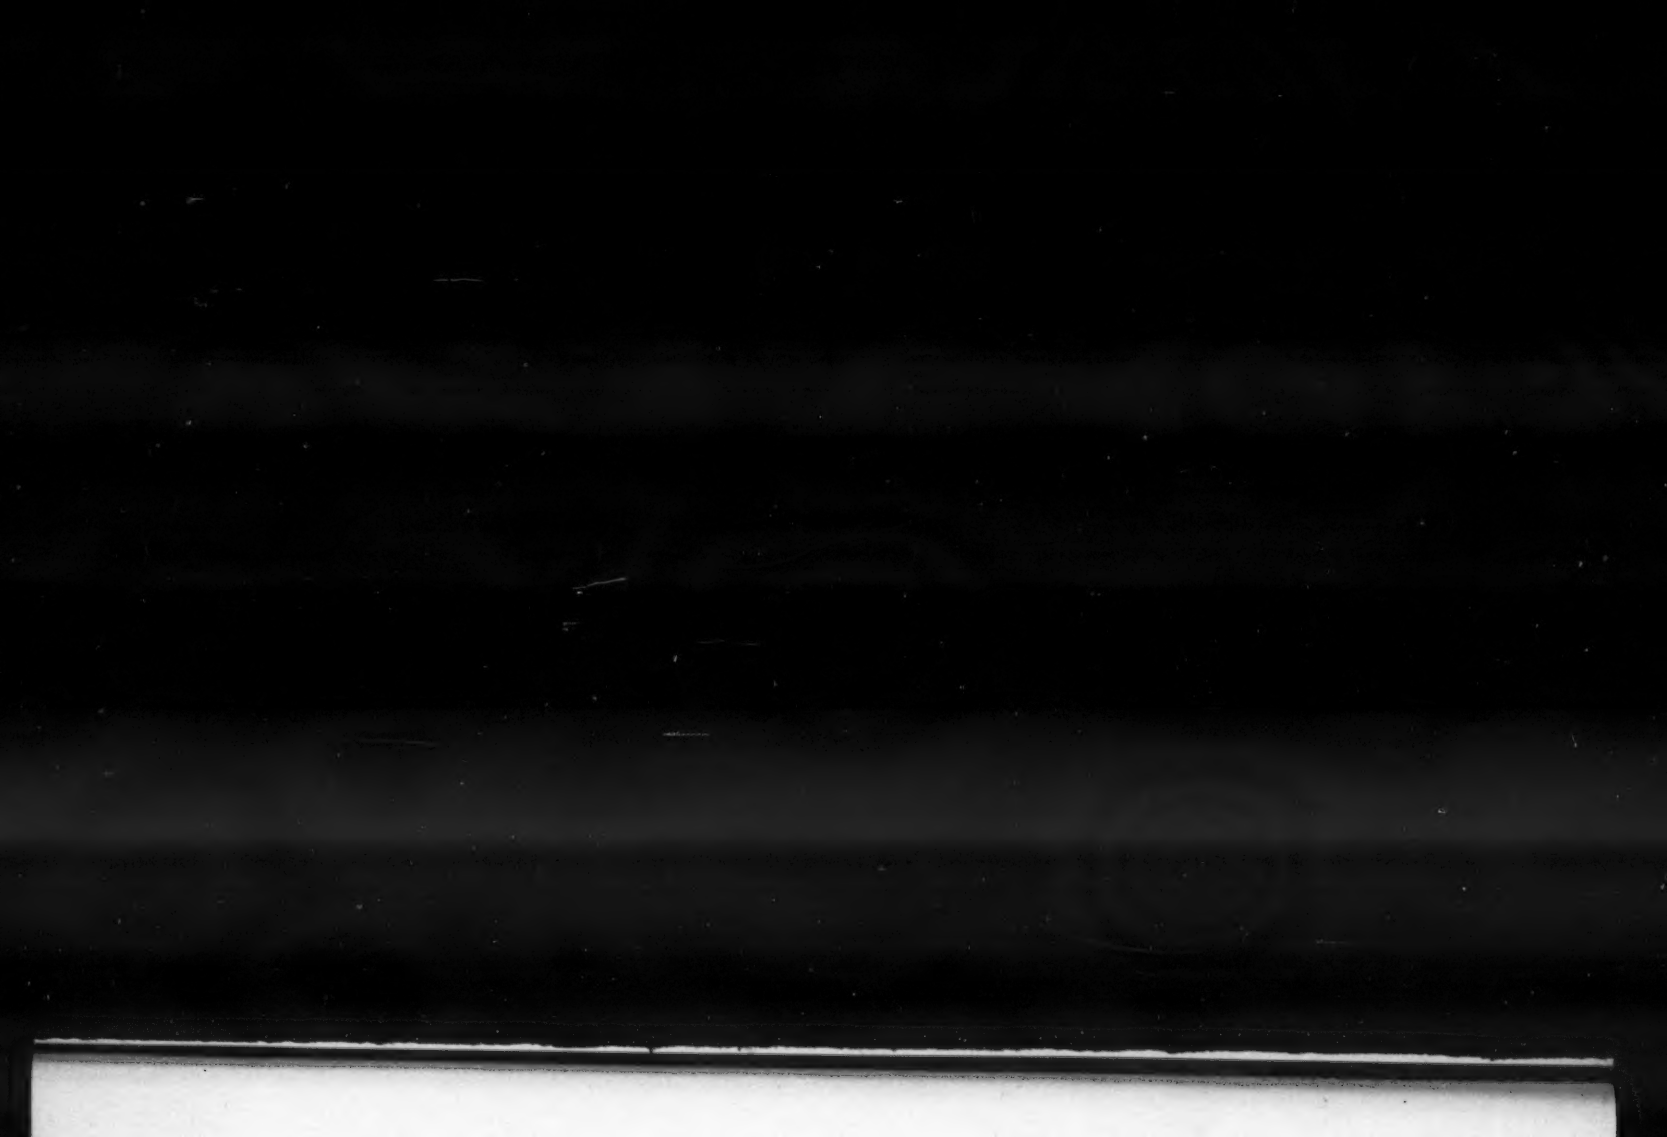
III.—SELF-ASSERTION AND SELF SUPPRESSION. By the Rev. James M. Bruce 456

PAGE.

IV.—THE REASONABLENESS OF ETERNAL PUNISHMENT. By President Galusha Anderson, D. D..... 468

V.—THE MILLENNIUM OF THE APOCALYPSE. By A. C. Kendrick, D.D 481

VI.—EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT.—The Proposed New York Cathedral, p. 500; Henry George and His Theories, p. 502; Notes on Current Educational Questions, p. 507; A Timely Appeal, p. 513..... 500

VII.—HOMILETIC DEPARTMENT.—After the Vacation, What? by the Rev. Wm. T. C. Hanna, p. 510; Christian Endeavor, by the Rev. Howard B. Grose, p. 517; Classes of Subjects for Sermons, by the Rev. Norman Fox, p. 519; Sermon Plans, by the Rev. Messrs. Gibbs Braislin and Richard Nott, p. 521; Pastoral Visitation, by the Rev. M. H. Pogson, p. 524..... 510


VIII.—REVIEW OF CURRENT LITERATURE. By the Editors, with the Co-operation of Professors Heman Lincoln and B. O. True, and Rev. Drs. W. N. Clarke and H. S. Burrage;—Rendall's Theology of the Hebrew Christians, p. 531; Weiss's Einleitung in das Neue Testament, p. 532; Armitage's History of the Baptists, p. 535; Smith's Studies in Modern Church History, p. 543; Hatch's Growth of Church History, p. 544; Keller's Zur Geschichte der Altevangelischen Gemeinden, p. 547; Spence's Thirty Thousand Thoughts, p. 548; Spurgeon's According to Promise, p. 550; Delitzsch's A Day in Capernaum, p. 550; MacDonald's God's Words to His Children, p. 551; The Poetic and Dramatic Works of Robert Browning, p. 551; A Collection of the Letters of Thackeray, p. 553..... 531